How Army Cooks Feed Fighting Men on 11 Cents a Day

ARMY COOK SHOWS MAN'S EFFICIENCY

Feeds His Allotted Company Without Waste or Great Expense. Course at Washington Barracks School Comprises Training in Menu-Making and Satisfying Men.

How many housewives in Washington could furnish three meals a day for a husky man at a cost of 11 cents a day, or less than 4 cents a meal."

Unless some feminine cook comes forward and meets this challenge the soldier students in the training school for bakers, and cooks at Washington Barracks insist that never again shall the charge be made that mere man can't cook a real "meal of vittles."
